

A Step in the Right Direction

Is the right one to take, and to do it you must step into our store and see our display of FALL SUITS and OVERCOATS. This isn't an age of miracles, but you can do wonders with a little money if you look at our stock. Every day sees our stock diminish a little more, and every sale we make adds another to our list of "walking advertisements." Our clothes attract attention everywhere for three specific reasons. They fit, they wear well, and they are correct in price. If you buy a suit from us you won't get over being pleased until it is worn out and you are ready for another. A $10 bill has a wonderful purchasing power in our establishment. It buys nearly as much as $15 will buy from our competitors. It's because WE know how to buy. If you are interested in Winter Clothes for yourself or your boy ours is the store for you.

COUNSEL TO MEN OF LARGE AFFAIRS!

During such a period of financial disturbance as the present, you find it necessary to concentrate all your talents and energies on the management of your affairs.

You cannot safely delegate the work to another.

At this time, anyone else, no matter what his ability, would be unable to help you business, or protect your investments, as well as you can.

But there is a choice that you may at any moment be forced thus to turn affairs over to the management of another—namely, in the event of your death.

Remember that executors often think more about avoiding risks and protecting themselves than of carrying out the spirit of the testator's views. They usually lack experience in the business they are trying to wind up.

This inexperience, and possible lack of interest, may cost 10 per cent or 15 per cent of the value of your estate, or more.

You cannot but recognize the truth of this statement; nevertheless, you can easily by economizing in your living expenses, pay from your insurance premium on a policy for $10,000 to $100,000, issued by the strongest social institution of its kind in the world—the Equitable Life Assurance Society of the United States, 120 Broadway, New York.

If you then chance to die, your executor will be instantly in the possession of $100,000 of cash in hand, and ready money will have a fourfold value in times like these.

On the other hand, if you live and take your assurance (for example) on the Equitable Endowment plan, you will yourself reap a rich reward on the maturity of the policy.

The following is an illustration of one out of many such policies maturing.

EXAMPLE.

Letter from a Policy-holder in the Equitable.

In response to your request that I should give you for publication the results of Policy No. 81,524 which matured June 2d, 1893, I beg to make the following statement:

The policy was for $1000, issued twenty years ago, on the Endowment. The amount paid in premiums was $653.60.

Among other options, the following methods of settlement are now offered:

First—Cash surrender value, $1597.04, equal to a return of all the premiums paid, with interest exceeding 6 per cent per annum.

Second—A paid-up policy of life assurance for $8858.

Third—A life annuity of $12.58.

June 2, 1893.

R. J. RILEY.

N. B.—The writer of the above letter has applied to the Equitable for a new policy for five times the amount of the original policy.
